

Welcome IB Class of 2012!

We would like to welcome a new group of readers with the May issue of the Broadcaster – current 8th graders who have turned in acceptances to be part of GW's IB Class of 2012!

We hope that you and your parents enjoy reading about some of the wonderful opportunities that await you in IB next year, and that you get a sense of what a strong, supportive, nurturing, and close-knit group we are here at George! If you have any questions, we encourage you and your parents to contact members of the Parent Board listed in this newsletter. We look forward to seeing you in the halls in the fall! Have a great summer! And, welcome to our IB family!

IB Parent Group Co-President Wins Volunteer Award

We are pleased to announce that IB's very own parent volunteer, Debi Roads, is a winner of the Helen Phelps Award given by the Denver Teachers' Award organization. Since 1957, Denver Teachers' Awards has recognized the teaching profession annually by honoring distinguished teachers for excellence in teaching. The Helen Phelps Award is given to an individual and a company who have assisted those teachers from the sidelines and sometimes in a very direct way.

We would like to show our great affection for and strong support of Debi Roads by having interested parents attend this year's awards banquet on Friday, May 9th, at the Doubletree Hotel, 3203 Quebec Street. The social hour begins at 5:30pm with dinner and the awards program following at 6:30pm. Ticket cost is $35.00.

For ticket sales: Tom Waymire, 650 South Cherry St., Suite 102, Denver, CO, 80246, 303355-6181. Please make your checks out to GWHS (in MEMO put Debi Roads Dinner) to Tom so that the awards organization can seat all of us together with Debi. Hope to see you there!

Textbook Order Form and Used Book Sale

The IB textbook order form is included in this Broadcaster, but you also have the opportunity this year to order online. Kelly Morrison and Len Finegold have set up the system to accept Pay Pal. Please go to <http://georgeib.com> and follow the link to book ordering. The deadline for ordering is June 16th.

Used books will be available on May 15th in the Community Room from 9am to 4 pm. Seniors, get rid of all those books and make some extra money for college. Cash will be given for most books that are in good condition.

From the Board

Can it be May already? Another school year is nearly finished and we are looking forward and back, all at once. Our April meeting was focused on the juniors and their parents. Suzanne Geimer, Dan Franklin and a panel of seniors and parents shared information regarding IB exams, gathering information about colleges, narrowing down college choices, the college application process for the fall, summer expectations, and generally preparing for the senior year. Thank you to parents Janice Thomas, Kim Jacques, Carla Foote and seniors Marina Kucic, Kevin Fulton, Austen Ishii, Raymon Doane, and Aala Abdelgadir for taking the time to meet with us. It was exciting to hear from Kim Jacques that colleges as far away as Rochester, New York knew of Suzi Geimer and her IB program and are eager to admit GWIB students. She has done an outstanding job ensuring the continued excellence of the program and I always look forward to my Wednesdays helping in her office.

This is the time of year when we celebrate the seniors and their exciting college opportunities.

Our students cannot rest yet, though: juniors and seniors take IB exams through mid-May, and regular finals continue past Memorial Day. This is a very stressful time, so be extra nice to your students this month and make sure they are well fed and well rested before their exams.

I would like to thank some of the parent volunteers who make the IB Parents Association and the GWIB program such a success, and whose time with us is ending. First, I would like to thank Andrea Shea for being my co-president. She has been my support person for two years and I could not have done this job without her. Her experience with South High's Parent Association gave me confidence that we could take on the GWIB Parents Association. Another huge "thank you" goes to Barbara Tung and Joanne Irons, our IB Broadcaster Editors. The Broadcaster is our primary means of informing and uniting all the members of the IB Parents Association and GWIB community. Barb and Joanne have perfected the process and are moving on. We say a fond farewell to several other Board members whose students are graduating this year. Jennifer Ostrum has done a wonderful job organizing and expanding the Welcome Fest to include all activities at the school. Her successor will be the beneficiary of Jennifer's clearly written job description and well-organized plan for future Welcome Fests. Toni Latcham is moving on to the next phase of her life after many, many years as a Board member. Toni has had three daughters go through the program and must be looking forward to a future free of IB deadlines. She and Gail Sigman have made the CAS program at GW one of the best in the country. Amy Wright has been our CSC representative and has also volunteered in the new Patriot Parent volunteer office one day a week. Amy's monthly updates to the Board helped us gain a better understanding of the school's operations as a whole. Finally we have a Board member who will be sorely missed by the parent board and the entire GW staff: Rita Gibson has taken teacher appreciation to new heights. She was committed to honoring every member of GW's faculty and staff, and did so by coordinating four teacher appreciation events a year for the past two years, as well as by devoting one full day a week to the Patriot Parent volunteer office. I hope she gets really bored and wants to stay involved next year! Andrea, Barb, Joanne, Jennifer, Toni, Amy, and Rita, thank you for your many years of volunteering. You will be missed. I have enjoyed getting to know and working with you.

I am deeply grateful to those parents who have already stepped up to fill the very big shoes of our departing Board members. Laura Whalen has volunteered to take on The Broadcaster while continuing to maintain our database and broadcast e-mail messages to IB families. Laura will be working closely with Kelly Morrison, our www.georgeib.com webmaster, technology guru, and all-around wunderkind. My gratitude to Kelly and Laura is boundless. They have brought us into the 21st century and made our lives so much easier. In response to parental requests, and with Laura and Kelly's skillful assistance, we will continue to offer The Broadcaster in both print and online versions. Kelly Morrison has also volunteered to chair the new IB Public Relations Committee. He will be working very closely with the Parent Board and our new Foundation president, Tom Zeiler. April Pluss has volunteered to take over as teacher appreciation chair and has been learning the ropes from Rita. I encourage anybody who is interested in helping to give April a call this summer and volunteer. Other exciting additions to the Board include Cora Neslin, who has volunteered to take over the IB Ambassador program, and Laura Michaels, who will take over as treasurer so Janice Thomas can help Gail Sigman with CAS.

Many thanks, too, to all the continuing members of the IB Parents Association Board and Friends of IB Scholars Foundation. A successful school program like the IB Program takes great students, of course, but it also takes support from great parents. The parents who volunteer their time to be on the Association and Foundation Boards are concretely demonstrating the commitment that so many IB parents have to the education of our children. So, thanks to all of you who have planned events, published the IB Directory, raised funds for the IB Program, and supported our students and faculty.

Finally, and most importantly, many thanks to Suzanne Geimer and our IB teachers for helping our kids reach their potential. We are so fortunate to have such a wonderful faculty who are always willing to help our kids.

--Board Co-President Debi Roads

Thank You to Parent Volunteers Who Have Shown Their Own Creativity, Action and Service for CAS Programs!

Creativity, Action, Service (CAS) is at the heart of the Diploma Program. It is one of the three essential elements in every student's Diploma Program experience. It involves students in a range of activities alongside their academic studies. Without parental involvement, we would not have been able to review the portfolios of and conduct peer interviews with all seniors, train juniors in the reflective writing technique, produce a creativity fair for sophomores and juniors, introduce all sophomores to the requirements and give each a portfolio of guidelines and ideas, and take the entire freshman class on a service day activity. Many thanks are in order for parents who helped us with these activities, and many have been listed throughout the year in our monthly CAS updates.

As the year comes to a close, additional thanks are in order for parents helping with year-end activities as well as to Toni Latcham who has served as the co-chair of this program for the last two years.

Toni has spent countless hours organizing activities, reading/reviewing student essays and activity sheets, mobilizing volunteers, running student meetings, and providing vision and leadership for this critical component of the IB Program. We will miss her many contributions, as well as the gourmet cuisine she prepared for committee meetings and parent appreciation events. Thank you, Toni!

Thanks to Helen Fulton for her work putting together portfolios for all sophomores and to Laurel Alpert, Julie Lays, Susan Tuchler, Anne Loopesko, Nikki Raschbacher, Amy Van Vranken and Karen Morrison for providing breakfast for the meeting to explain the CAS requirements to the class.

The Freshman Service Day required coordinating transportation, breakfast, lunch, snack and activities for the around 135 students. Andrea Loughry spearheaded the planning for the second year, working with the Denver Parks and Recreation staff and CAS committee members to plan the day. Carolyn Faselt arranged for transportation, and worked with Becky Bausch to provide lunch for all students, parent volunteers and park staff.

Many thanks to the following parents who accompanied us to the City of Chennai Park, working with the students for the day: Barbara Laff, Dave Marsh, Tom Millar, Christi Millar, Kelly Morrison, Andrea Gordon, Jennifer Janes, Peter Thomas, Laura Michaels, David Opperman, Crystal Reser, David Symonds, Wilma Shepherd, Dawn Bedrosian, Ann McIntyre, Mary Jo Minogue, Gloria Miller, Cynthia Brown and Helene Grall-Johnson, along with planning leaders Andrea Loughry, Carolyn Faselt and Becky Bausch.

Apologies to any parents whose names have been inadvertently left out for all these activities!

We couldn't have carried out all our activities without you. Thanks to all the parents who supported the activities of their kids, and helped with school-wide programs. If you would like to help plan next year's activities (some of which require summer planning), please contact me at gailsigman@comcast.net. Have a great summer!

--CAS Co-Chair Gail Sigman

Summer Writing Workshop

There will be a Writing Workshop for incoming juniors and seniors interested in extra practice and preparation for the IB English exam. Ms. Bryant, IB English teacher, will conduct two sessions to be held at GWHS in Room 221 this summer. The first session will be held June 2-6, from 9am to 11:45 am. The second sessions will be held July 7-11, from 9am to 11:45 am. If you have any additional questions, please contact Melanie Bryant at 720.423.8846 or Melanie_Bryant@dpsk12.org.

The workshops will cover:

- Close, detailed analysis of written text
- Writing practice for commentary and essay forms

Dates No-One-Wants to-Think- About-Yet-Department

GWHS Registration information for the 2008-2009 School Year will be mailed to all students in July.

Scheduled registration dates, by class, are still TBD.
August 11-12 - Walk-in Registration; students may register after their prescribed time, but not before.
August 18 - School begins for all GWHS 9th graders only
August 19 - School begins for 10-12th grade

People You Should Know

As a young girl growing up in small town Oklahoma, Ms. Ward never dreamed she would be a teacher but rather a doctor. French, however, held exotic appeal. She soon discovered a passion for the food, café life, culture, and old history of France, but foremost for the language. After completing degrees in both guidance counseling and French, Ms. Ward began teaching.

To date, Ms. Ward has been teaching for 25 years, 11 of which have been spent in GW's IB Program. She previously taught at both St. Mary's Academy and the University of Oklahoma. She currently teaches all levels of French.

Ms. Ward cites the intellectual challenge as one of her favorite parts of teaching IB students. "I enjoy seeing the genuine desire of students to learn – and especially to learn French! – as well as seeing them mature into open-minded young people." As a result, some of her favorite memories have been dinners with juniors and seniors.

In her spare time, Ms. Ward enjoys a variety of activities, including running, working out, reading, traveling, and cooking. She also spends time keeping in touch with her 22-year-old daughter, who is currently studying European business in Paris. As for future plans, she would still like the opportunity to pursue a career as a doctor for geriatric patients.

Ms. Ward's expectations of her students are simply that they do the best they are capable of doing, and ultimately, that they contribute to their communities. "I want my students to realize their potential. If I can learn French, anyone can. It's all in the timing," she says.

The Editors would sincerely like to thank IB senior Caitlin Opperman for submitting the People You Should Know article each month. Caitlin has done an outstanding job submitting her articles by the deadline with no editing required. Good luck Caitlin in your future endeavors. You are headed for the stars!!

Committee News You Can Use Community Landscape

The Community Landscape Committee is thrilled to report they had a fabulous turnout for the planting on April 18-19 with more than 125 volunteer students, parents, GW alums and CSU Master Gardeners, who turned out to dig holes, mix compost and plant trees that will benefit GW students for years to come! The kids were wonderful, worked hard, and got a lot accomplished.

In this photo, students are planting a 'Spring Snow' crabapple tree, already starting to blossom, in one of the planter boxes in the south courtyard.

Thanks, everyone, for all your hard work!

ALL ABOARD !

The trip to Costa Rica with Common Ground International will be leaving June 5th and returning to Denver on June 19th. There are still a few open spots on this trip, but the kids are going either way.

IB COLLEGE COUNSELING CORNER

As we go to press, members of the Class of 2008 are finalizing their college choices – see the list-in-progress in this issue. May 1 is the decision deadline, and an updated list will be posted on www.gwib.com soon thereafter. A detailed class profile will also be on the website when it becomes available.

Congratulations on all your successes, Seniors! Remember to thank everyone who helped you get to this point, and to let them know how everything turned out. Good luck with your IB exams! Those grades will be available on the IBO website during the summer, so keep the letter with your access code in a very safe place. Follow IBO’s procedures if your college needs an official report of your scores for admission confirmation or for advanced standing; GWIB cannot provide this. Make your packing list, decide about buying/upgrading a computer, discuss finances with your family, attend orientation, and most of all, have a fun and relaxing summer.

Juniors and their parents received detailed information about what to expect during senior year at the April 8 meeting. Many thanks to Mrs. Geimer, Mr. Franklin, senior panelists Aala Abdelgadir, Raymon Doane, Kevin Fulton, Austen Ishii, and Marina Kucic, and parent panelists Carla Foote, Kim Jacques, and Janice Thomas for their timely input. If you missed it, or lost your handouts, check for them on the website. Next fall will be an incredibly busy time, and your time management skills will be tested as never before. Anything you can do over the summer to get a jump on the to-do list will help keep you (and your parents) sane. Narrow your college list to perhaps 10 schools, and to plan summer and fall campus visits. Even in the summer you may be able to arrange an admissions interview and/or a meeting with a faculty member, coach, or activity director, in addition to a formal information session and tour. Finish your first round of the SAT and Subject Tests (May 3 and June 7) and ACT with Writing (June 14) if any of your colleges require these. Testing/retesting will not be available again until the fall, but you can do some test prep between now and then if you need to improve your scores. Summer is also the time to write a draft of your college essay and to prepare the other materials that are due during the first week of school (School Report Form from the Common Application, resumé, and lists of references and colleges). Take this opportunity to indulge in meaningful experiences such as job shadowing, paid or volunteer work that relates to your academic/career interests, CAS activities, and anything else that helps you along your path to independence.

Wise sophomores will give themselves a leg up before the start of formal IB classes by devoting time over the summer to creative pursuits, physically challenging activities, and/or community service work. Not only will you be meeting CAS requirements, you’ll be developing your unique self and your resumé at the same time. Just as you prefer meaningful school assignments over busy work, you’ll prefer summer activities with some substance over pure time-killers. And don’t forget that you’ll be taking the PSAT in October, and the ACT (and maybe SAT and Subject Tests) later in the year. It’s not too early to browse some practice tests and decide what kind of test preparation you will need. Freshmen will also be happiest with some worthwhile summer plans that build on their year’s worth of high school experience.

All students and parents, take note. An interesting college fair will be in Denver shortly before the start of school: Colleges That Change Lives Fair, www.ctcl.com, Wednesday, August 6, 7:00-9:30PM, Marriott Denver City Center.

And everyone should jump at the chance to read some books purely for pleasure. Remember when you had time for that? Rediscover the joy!

--Linda During, College Counseling Chair

Freshman Orientation Welcome Reception May 22, 6-8 PM

To our incoming Freshman Class and their Parents: We are so excited you have chosen the George Washington IB program. Please come meet GWHS's IB faculty, staff, IB Parent Board members, current IB students and their parents at the Freshman Orientation Welcome Reception.

The evening starts at 6:00 PM in the library for parents and in the foyer for students. The students will get a tour of the school. We will have introductions of staff and the IB Board President and a panel of students to answer questions. Following the tour and introductions, we will move to the Lunchroom for refreshments and a chance for new freshmen and their parents to chat with our IB representatives up close and personal. This is your opportunity to ask those last minute questions that just can't wait until fall, another chance to take another look, and the opportunity to meet and talk to the teachers for next year.

To our current IB Students and their Parents:
Join us as we greet the new incoming Freshmen Class of 2012 at the Freshmen Orientation Welcome Reception. If you know someone who will be in the 9th grade next year, please drop in and say "hello." We are looking for current IB students and parents to answer any questions they may have. Remember volunteering can be part of your CAS requirements. Also we need a few volunteers to come at 5:30 PM for set up or stay a little later to cleanup. If you can help please call me at 303 3998801

--Debra Roads, Freshman Orientation Committee

Kalyn Tung, IB senior, is a contestant in the first ever Miss Asian American Colorado contest hosted by Asian Avenue magazine. The event will take place at the Holiday Inn – Select Denver – Cherry Creek on May 31, 2008 and showcases Asian American women, ages 18-25, in their leadership, service, intelligence and individual talent.

Miss Asian American Colorado exemplifies what every woman should be: empowered, intelligent, and compassionate. Miss AACO will redefine traditional perceptions of beauty by exhibiting the importance of beauty that radiates from within. The goal of Miss Asian American Colorado is to encourage unity and understanding among Asian Americans in Colorado and to increase public awareness of the diversity and strengths of the Asian American community. Miss AACO will be a role model within and a spokesperson for the Asian American community for one year. The top winners will receive scholarships in the amounts of $1,000, $750 and $500 along with trophies, crowns, and prizes. For tickets please call 303.937.6888.

Kalyn will trade in her glass slippers for combat boots when she enters the United States Air Force Academy in June.

GW's Mock Trial Team Moves on to Nationals!

FIRST TIME IN THE HISTORY OF MOCK TRIAL THAT A DPS SCHOOL WILL COMPETE IN THE NATIONAL COMPETITION!

GW's Mock Trial Team WON the state tournament and will move on to national competition in Delaware May 8-10

Congratulations to the Mock Trial Team!!! After 4 years of competing and making it to the State Championship round twice, GW will be going to the National Mock Trial Competition in Wilmington, Delaware May 8-10, 2008. The students who will be competing in Delaware are Alex Bates, Sarah Zapiler, Connor Phillips, Brenton Weyi, Tory Reiss, Zander Loudon, and Peter Wright. Habab Badri, a member of the JV team will be the official timekeeper traveling with the team to Wilmington. Attorney coaches accompanying the team are Lindsey Rothrock and Dennis Kaw. Other members of the varsity team not travelling to Delaware include Brent Gaisford, Brinton Mitchell, Rebecca Barach and Elie Reiss. The team will sorely miss Kara Veitch, attorney coach, who is due to deliver her second child on May 10th and will not accompany the team to Delaware. While the team knows this will be an exciting weekend, they felt this was more excitement than they could handle. Voted Best Attorneys at State were Brenton Weyi, Tory Reiss and Sarah Zapiler.

Junior varsity team members include Mariah Wilkerson, Habab Badri, Guy Lichtey, James Sze, and Jennifer Ruiz-Gallegos. Selected Outstanding Attorneys from the JV were Habab Badri and Guy Liechty, and Outstanding Witness, Jennifer Ruiz-Gallegos.

Remarkable!

GW Speech and Debate Team Highest Number of Wins in District & Seven National Qualifiers

This year Maryrose Kohan has led the GW Speech and Debate team to incredible and consistent success. She has been helped by dedicated GW teacher Cyndi Koehler and by many parents and friends who are creating a solid foundation for the future. The team of about 60 members has the highest number of Speech and Debate wins in its district, which covers a larger area than just DPS!

In the recent national qualifying tournament, because of the excellent leadership of Maryrose Kohan, the GW speech team won not only the continuous trophy for consistent excellence, but also the tournament's sweepstakes trophy – beating East on both accords.

Highlights of a school-year of competition are:

- A four-day long competition at the University of California at Berkeley in which a GW Public Forum team and an Extemporaneous Speaker broke to finals.
- The Colorado State Meet in which 21 GW students participated and three broke to finals.
- National Qualifiers during which seven GW debaters qualified to go to the National Forensic Championship to be held in June. The individual qualifiers for nationals were Brenton Weyi and Cody Troyer in Public Forum Debate, former GW students Zafar Moosajee and Max Wood in Cross Examination Debate, Brendan Patrick in National Extemporaneous, and Joanna Foote in Foreign Extemporaneous

We sincerely thank all the parents who supported the team and made this terrific season possible. Having finished her second year, Ms. Kohan is building a powerhouse team, and Ms. Koehler has backed her up!

A Thank You and a Report from the Friends of IB Scholars Foundation May 2008

The special fundraising campaign in March and April 2008 for the classroom performance clicker system for Dr. Jyoti More's IB chemistry classes was a great success. Thanks to the many IB families who donated, the IB Foundation received $1,000 from the matching grant offered by the IB family who proposed the chemistry clicker campaign, plus over $3,000 from other IB families. As a result, the Foundation was able to purchase the clicker system for Dr. More for $1,600, plus fund an additional $2,400 of grants for the IB program.

This year, our IB families, in conjunction with the Ebrahimi Family Foundation, other foundations who met the challenge of the Ebrahimi matching grant for new foundation contributions, and other foundations who contributed to the IB Foundation again this year, enabled the Friends of IB Scholars Foundation to raise over $54,000 to benefit the GW IB program. Foundations donated $31,350 to the IB Foundation, and IB families, friends and alumni contributed over $23,000. As a result of these many generous donations, the Foundation was able to approve a wide variety of proposals that will enhance and enrich the educational experience in the IB program at George Washington High School. At the Foundation board meeting held in March 2008, the following grant proposals were approved by the Foundation:

- $8,750 for renewal of the contract for Dan Franklin, the part-time IB college counselor, to provide group and individual counseling sessions for junior and senior IB students.
- $5,000 for the summer enrichment program to be held in Summer 2008, including a class for the entering 9th Grade IB freshmen, emphasizing study skills, an introduction to IB classes, and skills for the transition to high school.
- $850 for books for Ms. Kohan's Pre-IB U.S. History classes.
- $547 for books for Ms. Ward's IB French classes.
- $3,550 for District, State and National History Day registration fees for IB students, and van rental and travel expenses for Ms. Guggenheim and IB students at the national finals of the National History Day competition at the University of Maryland.
- $1,133 for dissection kits and blood-typing kits for Mr. Epke's Pre-IB biology classes.
- $1,000 for two $500 college scholarships for IB students for excellence in CAS activities.
- $614 for an LCD projector for Ms. Morrow's IB English classes.

- $6,256 for the classroom performance Clicker System, colorimeter and gas pressure sensors for the chemistry Calculator-Based Laboratory data collection equipment purchased by the IB Foundation in previous years, five additional portable analytical balances to go with the balances purchased by the IB Foundation in previous years, and pipet washer equipment for Dr. More's IB chemistry classes.
- $700 for an LCD projector and cart for Ms. Rivera's IB Spanish classes.
- $1,773 for books for IB English classes for Ms. Morrow, Ms. Wadsworth and Mr. Bancroft.
- $8,500 for honoraria for IB faculty for advising on IB student extended essays.
- $725 for a laptop computer for Ms. Gale-Martinez's Pre-IB American Government classes.
- $1,000 for five sets of the CASHFLOW economics learning game for Mr. Lee's IB Economics classes.
- $1,020 for Ms. Bryant's summer writing program for incoming IB Seniors.
- $3,000 for exhibit and display equipment for Ms. Wadsworth's IB Art classes.
- $505 for a classroom display whiteboard for Ms. Ward's IB French classes.
- $797 for a DVD/CD copier for Mr. Arichea's IB Music classes and the IB Drama classes.
- $4,000 for loans for IB exam fees and books for IB students in need of financial assistance.
- $4,750 for a loan for Model UN students for fundraising.

Elections for officers and board members were also held at the March meeting. Tom Zeiler was elected as President of the Foundation, and Janice Thomas was re-elected as Treasurer of the Foundation. A big thank you to Linda During, who has decided to resign as Secretary of the Foundation, and special thanks to Janice for her endless dedication and many hours of service as the Foundation Treasurer. All of the other board members were re-elected to their positions. Note that the Foundation is still looking for a parent to volunteer to be Secretary next year. If there are any IB parents who are interested in taking the position of Secretary or serving as a member on the Foundation board, please contact Tom Zeiler at tomzeiler@msn.com.

I have decided that it is time for me to resign from the Foundation board. I want to thank all of the IB Foundation board members for their commitment and dedication to the Foundation and the GW IB program. It has been a great privilege to work with Suzi Geimer and so many thoughtful and caring parents and teachers in support of the educational proposals funded by the Foundation. And finally, a thank you to all of the contributors to the IB Foundation this year, who made the Foundation's grants to the IB program possible. The Foundation looks forward to the continued support of the George Washington IB community next year.

Attention Parents!!

Please Mail Book Order Form by June 16th

Get organized and save money with the help of our book purchasing program while benefiting the Friends of IB Scholars Foundation.

Have you ever had your student come to you at 11:00 at night and tell you they need Chronicle of a Death Foretold by the next morning for language arts class? Well, we're here to help! We have set up a book purchasing program that will save you money and time. Here's what you do:

- Order books by June 16th.
- Books will be available for your student to pick up at registration in the IB office.
- Save 10% through the Friends of IB Scholars Foundation's non-profit purchasing power, while an additional 10% savings goes toward the foundation's funding for students who need assistance with testing and book costs.
- Participate 10% or 100% with the program, it's up to you.
- Specific books that can be purchased cheaper on the Internet than through our program will be identified on the order form. Shop early!!
- Those who need financial assistance for language arts, please fill out the form immediately and return it with the assistance box filled in. For more than ten years, the Foundation's mission has been to ensure that no student is prevented from participating in the IB program because of financial need.

Our goal is that all students have their books on the first day of school—and no more late-night runs to Tattered Cover. This program is voluntary! If you do not wish to participate, we hope that you will benefit from having this list of books early so that you can purchase them yourself in advance. Mail order form to: Debra Roads, 741 Adams St., Denver, Colorado 80206.

IB SENIOR BRUNCH

Their future's so bright, the IB Seniors wore shades at the brunch in their honor on April 27th at the University of Denver! Sunny decorations, fabulous food, a snappy DVD featuring baby and current photos of the Class of 2008, live music, and a skit written and performed by the seniors made for a memorable occasion! Every IB senior has worked hard to complete four years of highly rigorous academics, and the annual brunch is a celebration of that effort and accomplishment. The entire IB community joins in congratulating the IB graduates-to-be and in wishing them all continued success, good fortune, and safe travels.

A number of seniors received special awards during the festivities. The annual Vaughn Aandahl Award honors the memory of the GW math teacher who initiated the idea of bringing the IB program to the school. Kevin Black is this year's winner, selected on the basis of his enthusiasm for math and his embodiment of the spirit of IB. The CAS Award recognizes students whose CAS activities and resulting portfolio best exemplify the spirit of the CAS requirement, involving the whole person in the IB learning enterprise through creativity, action, and service outside of traditional academics. As we went to press, this year's recipients had not yet been determined; please check the website. IB's French teacher, Ms. Ward, presented a special award in memory of her mother, Betty Buford, recently deceased at the age of 91. Ms. Buford was known for her incredible work ethic and her fabulous sense of humor and Meghan Kleinsteiber was selected as the French student who best fit that mold.

The much-anticipated highlight of the Senior Brunch was the traditional skit. Kevin Fulton and Jared Downing ably led a large and enthusiastic cast of characters in a loving yet searing roast of the beloved IB faculty. Kudos to the performers for their masterful impressions, and to the teachers who accepted it all with remarkable grace and good humor.

Many thanks to co-chairs Harry Newman and Rie Kenkel, and committee members Helen Atkeson, Julia Barry, Adde Bjorklund, Elizabeth Frank, Helen Fulton, Rita Gibson, Anna Loopesko, Marie Peterson, Debb Reed, and Cathy Stamp, student musicians Christine Anderson and Maya Shannon, and student MC's Granger Atkeson and Cody Troyer. Through their creativity, dedication, and hard work, the Class of 2008 was fêted in grand style.

IB Alums Go Global

The International Focus of IB in Full Effect for Emily Sigman, Class of 2007

Emily Sigman, '07, is taking advantage of some terrific international opportunities while studying at Yale University. She spent her two week spring break trekking across the Middle East as part of a delegation of ten Yale students selected to meet various leaders across the region. The trip focused on the Israeli-Palestinian relationship, and the students crossed many borders and worked with multiple peoples in order to glean a true understanding of the region's dynamics. Before departing, the group was immersed in the history of the complex relationship between Israelis and Palestinians through weekly meetings with experts from the university speaking about and discussing various aspects of the conflict. They spent significant time learning about each country's culture and people, and learned some essential colloquial Hebrew and Jordanian Arabic.

The group volunteered with organizations working in Palestinian communities including the UN Relief and Works Agency (UNRWA). The group spent a significant amount of time in Bakka, a Palestinian refugee camp, meeting with families and UN officials, and the last three days in Jordan were spent working with Friends of the Earth Middle East on a project called Good Water, Good Neighbors, which pairs together Jordanian and Israeli communities that are mutually dependent on the same areas of the Jordan Valley Region to learn techniques in improving environmental infrastructure. While in Jerusalem, the group met with representatives from the Shalom Center for Peace and spent a day cleaning a water-treatment facility plant. Other highlights included meeting with both the Israeli and Jordanian Foreign Ministers and the head of PR for the Israeli government. The trip was not a typical spring break experience, but was a rewarding, enlightening, and worthwhile experience.

Emily was also awarded the Richard U. Light Fellowship, which covers the costs of studying Chinese at Beijing Normal University this summer as a student of the prestigious Princeton in Beijing program. The Princeton Chinese Language Program has a "total immersion" approach, which means she must pledge to speak no language other than Mandarin Chinese throughout the session, must attend four hours of class daily, plus individual tutorial sessions in the afternoons, must maintain contact with faculty at meals and in campus life, and attend special lectures on aspects of China studies.

Despite the rigors of the program, Emily looks forward to exploring China, taking weekend trips to different provinces, and returning to Yale speaking fully conversational Chinese.

Emily credits the George Washington IB program with preparing her well for the rigors of academic life at a top college, and for endowing her with a propensity for an international education.

Hannah Chazin, class of 2004, is graduating from the University of Chicago. She will participate in the dig of a bronze site near Chelyabinsk, Russia, in the Southern Urals in July. She was admitted to a one-year program in Archeological Science, Churchill College, Cambridge, England.

Alums and Friends of GW Mermaids, Microphones, and Membership

Only two years old, the Alums and Friends of GW has gathered steam and offered essential assistance to the current students at GW. Among its many behind-the-scenes projects the Alums and Friends organized this year are

- a drawing for tickets to the Denver performance of Disney's Little Mermaid starring GW Alum Sierra Boggess '01. Ms. Boggess also came to campus to talk with the drama students.
- the purchase of a new sound system for the GW auditorium installed just one night before the premiere of the musical "Once on this Island."
- an Alum and Friends website that now has 800 members! Sign up or check for news at gwhs.dpsk12.org/alumni.
- a fundraising golf tournament for Friday, August 15, 2008 at Wellshire Golf Course. You're welcome to join in!

We owe special thanks to the Alums who are dedicated to the future of the school: Tom Goodman '64, Dick Agren '65, Stan Cook '65, Jim Eichberg '65, Larry Jackson '65, Charlene Porter '69, Carol Abbott '72, Chris Simpson '88, and Andrew Isberg '98.

Check out the website for announcements on projects and opportunities at <http://gwhs.dpsk12.org/alumni>.

Track & Field Keeps On Runnin'

This season, George Washington's Track and Field team is really taking off out of the blocks, so to speak. Both boys and girls are finishing fast at the meets and placing high. With the guidance of coaches, the runners are dropping times and setting personal records.

The question now remains whether the team will return to take the title of State Champions for a second year running! According to girl's head coach Chuck Dugee, "We really have a good chance at State this year." IB's own runners include Matthew Bell, Adrian Johnson, Alexander Port, Andre Biscaye, Ashley Ajayi, Conrad Quade, Donte Turner, Emmily Pierce, Evan Webber, Harper Hill, Jane Culkin, Jeffrey Smith, K'ara Locke, Kathleen Shea, Keleka Blair, Kelsey Meyer, Kevin Black, Laura Moore, Randall Waymire, Raymon Doane, Renata Garbowski, Rio Garcia, and Takara Reed.

Double Your Pleasure, Double Your Fun for IB 2008 Valedictorian, Salutatorian

After four years, the IB Program at GW becomes a family away from home for the students. For the Graduating Class of 2008, the Valedictorian and Salutatorian exceed even that by living together. As fraternal twins, Alexander and Christian Ghincea have pushed each other to succeed, supporting and competing against one another throughout life and throughout high school.

Their impressive academic achievements at George Washington are compounded with their success throughout Colorado and even the United States. They have competed in the National History Day Competition four times, making it to the state-wide competition all four years, and the national competition once.

The brothers are active outside of school as well. During the winter, they work as ski and snowboard instructors for the Eskimo Ski Club. They ran cross country for GW in the 9th and 10th grades. They also played soccer for GW in their 11th and 12th grades. A fact you may not know is that both Alex and Chris have been playing piano since 6th grade and are accomplished pianists.

Next year, both Alex and Chris are attending Regis University, Denver, Colorado, on full-ride scholarships-- Alex for biology and Chris for chemistry. Both have ambitions to be doctors. In the many years of schooling ahead, we at George Washington wish both Alex and Chris the best of luck.

The Editors regret that due to space limitations, the entire list of spring IB athletes cannot be published in this issue of the Broadcaster but will be posted on the website at <http://www.georgeib.com>. We would like to congratulate all the IB athletes for your outstanding talent and sportsmanship.

Go G-Dub!!

Congratulations! Today is your day. You're off to Great Places! You're off and away. So... be your name Buxbaum or Bixby or Bray or Mordecai Ali Van Allen O'Shea, you're off to Great Places! Today is your day! Your mountain is waiting. So ... get on your way!
